Prominent among these are Governor Birvenson, Judge Bullock, Hon. Osent Tasner, Dr. Norvin Green, Worsmor Maroffin, Hon. Jesse D. Bright, Col McCreery and Judge Photer. From such material there can be no difficulty in select-ing a fit representative of Kentneky's interantisfection. Had the health of that dirtinguished gentleman been anch as to admit of his tabling his acel in the Scents the wishes of the people of Kentucky would have been consulted by his retaining his position; but it is of the first importance that Kentucky at a time like this about the fally represented on the flooriot the Senate, and it to the fooriot the Senate, and it to the fooriot the Senate, and it to the first ber acted the next of the senate of t resigning Mr. Guthric har acted the part of a true Kentuckian and a patriot. In this connection it is perhaps proper to any that we are selisfied that the resolutions of Mr. or, which were some time since int Justice, which were some time time intro-duced in the House of Representatives were prompted by no want of confidence in Sens-tor Gathrie, but had their orders in the same patriotic motives which influenced Mr.
